

File Report: The Esteemed Wizard Geoff Havaerty

Wizard Havaerty is the right-hand of the future King, Prince Alberon. The Kingdom should know that Wizard Havaerty, in his schooling, dabbled slightly in the dark arts. Sources that refused to be named described him as cunning, secretive, and loyal... though to what, they did not say.

Though I was not able to speak with any of Havaerty's professors, the alumni of the year that he graduated do not seem to like him very much. Many of them avoided questioning, but from what I could learn, he became acquainted with Prince Alberon in his second term at the University, around the time that the rumors of dark magic began to spread. Though Alberon heard the rumors, his people say that he doesn't believe them... Proceed with caution.
